The Texas Mayors of Military Communities Presents "Legislative

Champion of the Year 2015" Award to Senator Juan "Chuy" Hinojosa. National Veteran Senior Corps Pinning Ceremony.

Mayor Martinez recognized Senator Juan "Chuy" Hinojosa as the "Legislative Champion of the Year 2015" and presented the proclamations.

F. PUBLIC COMMENT FROM THE AUDIENCE ON MATTERS NOT SCHEDULED ON THE AGENDA WILL BE HEARD AT APPROXIMATELY 12:00 P.M. PLEASE LIMIT PRESENTATIONS TO THREE MINUTES. A recording is made of the meeting; therefore, please speak into the microphone located at the podium and state your name and address. If you have a petition or other information pertaining to your subject, please present it to the City Secretary.

Mayor Martinez called for comments from the public. City Attorney Miles K. Risley read the Rules of Decorum for the Council Chambers. Rick Milby, 4412 High Ridge Drive, thanked the City Council for their service and for his appointment to the Charter Review Commission. Mr. Milby commended the City Council for their appointments to the Ad Hoc Residential Infrastructure Committee, and acknowledged the experience of committee member Toby Futrell. Mr. Milby provided information on the street system and asked the City Council to cut the City's budget and use the savings to repair the streets. Greg Smith, 1746 Glenoak, reported on the Island Strategic Action Committee's support for the Park Road 22 Bridge at their November meeting. Angela Leal, Westside Business Association, announced the state and national historical designation bestowed upon the Galvan Ballroom, located at 1632 Agnes Street. To honor the Galvan family and their legacy, the Westside Business Association will be holding their annual fundraiser, "El Gran Baile", on Saturday, November 14, 2015 at the Galvan Ballroom. John White, 77 Townhouse Lane, spoke on behalf of the Padre Island Business Association and expressed the Association's support for the Park Road 22 water exchange. John Stafford, 5130 Fox Run Drive, spoke regarding the following topics: the street repair budget; developing an annual plan to prioritize and budget for street improvements; in opposition to funding the Park Road 22 Bridge to assist a developer; and what the City Council is doing to keep jobs in Corpus Christi. Jack Gordy, 4418 Bray, spoke regarding his public information request for information from the United States Department of Justice grandfathering the palm trees on Airline Road and the mediation on this issue. Christopher Manuel, 911 Laredo, suggested a plan to hire the homeless population to clean the parks and streets. Carolyn Moon, 4902 Calvin, spoke regarding the money the City has spent on various plans. Ms. Moon recommended that instead of considering giving up on the Plan CC 2035 document, the Council could tackle it one goal at a time. Errol Summerlin, Citizens Alliance for Fairness and Progress, spoke regarding several development plans that address the future land use, growth and improvements for the Hillcrest and Washington Coles area that differ from Plan CC 2035. Douglas Johnson, 610 Brock, spoke regarding the following topics: the condition of the streets; the division of the City Council on this topic; and the appointments to the Ad Hoc Residential Infrastructure Committee. Mr. Johnson stated that the committee can look at this issue from any perspective, however, raising taxes and funding is the only way to address the streets. Shirley Thornton, 1917 Woodcrest, spoke in opposition to Plan CC 2035 and stated that a comprehensive plan should address repairing and preparing the infrastructure to accommodate the natural growth of the City. To address street repair issues, Ms. Thorton said the City should utilize the talents in the community; establish community "think tanks"; and cut the City budget by 3% every month. Walter Saganice, 3449 Picadilly

Lane, spoke regarding Plan CC 2035 and the elements required for an urban village concept.

G. CITY MANAGER'S COMMENTS / UPDATE ON CITY OPERATIONS:

Mayor Martinez referred to City Manager's Comments. City Manager Ron Olson reported on the following topics:

a. OTHER

1) City Manager Olson introduced the Employee of the Quarter, Joe Salinas with the Streets Department. 2) The City of Corpus Christi/Nueces County Public Health District will be holding their annual Flu Vaccine Drive-Through Clinic on Friday, November 13, 2015 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. There will be a cost of $30 per vaccine and Medicaid and Medicare will be accepted. The Public Health District is encouraging the public to take advantage of this opportunity to minimize the impact of flu on society. 3) City Manager Olson said there have been various conversations with the City Council regarding security measures at City Hall, including metal detectors at City Hall. The metal detectors are scheduled to go into effect on December 21st and a small presentation will be provided by Police Officer Denise Pace on the implementation and the employee and public entrances.

First Reading Ordinance - Accepting and Appropriating Partial Reimbursement for Election Services Overbilling

Ordinance accepting payment from Nueces County in the amount of $73,616.52 as partial reimbursement for election services overbilling and appropriating in the No. 1020 General Fund; changing the FY2015-2016 operating budget adopted by Ordinance 030620 to increase revenues and expenditures by $73,616.52.

Mayor Martinez referred to Item 24. City Secretary Rebecca Huerta stated that Nueces County Clerk Kara Sands recently notified the City of Corpus Christi that Nueces County had completed an audit of the cost of election services billed to the City from October 2012 and December 2014. City Secretary Huerta stated that the purpose of this item is to accept and appropriate the first of two $73,616.52 reimbursement payments from Nueces County. The second payment is expected to be reimbursed by Nueces County next fiscal year. There were no comments from the public.

Council members spoke regarding the following topics: where the funds would be appropriated and appreciation to Nueces County Clerk Kara Sands for ordering the audit.

Council Member Magill made a motion to approve the ordinance, seconded by Council Member Rubio. This Ordinance was passed on first reading and approved with the following vote:

R. BRIEFINGS: (ITEMS 31 - 32)

31. Corpus Christi Regional Economic Development Corporation (CCREDC) Quarterly Economic Update

Mayor Martinez referred to Item 31. Iain Vasey, President/CEO of the Corpus Christi Regional Economic Development Corporation (EDC), stated that the purpose of this item is to provide the EDC quarterly update. Mr. Vasey provided the following information: the EDC's goals and results; data for the Coastal Bend Workforce Area; key economic indicators; the strategic plan; the economic return on investment; and the 2016 economic outlook.

Council members spoke regarding the following topics: the efforts made by the EDC regarding job retention and creation and global company presence in Corpus Christi.

32. Housing Workshop #4

Mayor Martinez referred to Item 32. Assistant City Manager Susan Thorpe stated that the purpose of this item is to present Housing Workshop #4 regarding a proposal for a new infill housing incentive program for council discussion and direction. Assistant City Manager Thorpe introduced the presentation team members: Assistant City Manager Gus Gonzalez and Director of Housing and Community Development Eddie Ortega. Assistant City Manager Thorpe provided a brief recap of the previous workshops: the housing market supply for homes below $100,000; focusing housing policies and programs on vacant, substandard, infill/revitalization, and downtown areas; the City's tools to influence housing; short and long-term recommendations; and the current housing programs for Housing and Community Development (HCD) and Type A. Assistant City Manager Thorpe presented information on the Type A Pilot Program approved by the Type A board at their September 21, 2015 meeting and the proposed City Infill Housing Incentive Program's purpose, benefits, program guidelines and incentives. Staff is recommending that the proposed Infill Housing Incentive Program be considered for the six lots within the CDBG boundaries that the City Council previously directed to be sold.

Council members spoke regarding the following topics: the software tracking program used by Housing and Community Development (HCD) to track payment of loans; the interest rate on loans; how the loans generate revenue; the Type A loan for Home Buyer Assistance up to $10,000; the maximum loan that can be received when combining the HCD and Type A loans; gap analysis on Type A loans; whether Type A funds can be used for closing costs; the ability to provide incentives on vacant lots in the CDBG area on both private and City-owned lots; the similarities between the Type A Pilot Program and the existing demolition/reconstruction program in HCD; whether there is a market for the Type A pilot program; generating comparables through the Type A Pilot Program; risks associated with the Type A Pilot Program; modifying the Type A Pilot Program to a loan program to build a house; the number of loans provided for demolition/reconstruction program; the infill lot programs provided by the City of San Antonio; average price of a house per square foot in the CDBG area; creating a list of multiple or vacant homes in an area to develop "opportunity spaces" for builders/investors and provide incentives or rezoning to revitalize neighborhoods; investigating other programs that are successful in affordable housing; an example of the type of home that will be built; the long-term recommendation for partnering with the Corpus Christi Housing Authority; the reason the lots were not sold as previously directed by City Council; the total amount of incentives that the City would provide; responses from the builders regarding the programs; the timeframe for the bidding process; options to encourage the Texas Department of Housing and Community Affairs to provide points for infill/redevelopment; and that the City should not be in the home building business.

The consensus of the City Council was to: bring forward the Infill Housing Incentive Program for vacant City-owned lots and the targeted CDBG area; bring back to City Council, the Type A Pilot Program with clear information on the lending process, with no risk to the taxpayers; and provide periodic progress reports to City Council with results and recommendations.
