

South Side Water Transmission Main

Council Presentation
May 24, 2022

Project Location

Project Scope

This project provides for construction of water distribution transmission infrastructure cathodic protection.

A brief summary of proposed improvements is as follows:

- Field discovery, testing, design, bid, and construction phase services for the installation of cathodic protection
- Commission cathodic protection system and train City personnel on system

Project Vicinity

Project Schedule

2022	2022-2023			2023
May - October	N	D	J	February - September
Design	Bid/Award			Construction

Project schedule reflects City Council award in May 2022 with anticipated construction completion in September 2023.