BACKGROUND:

On September 8, 2015, the City Council made a motion of direction adopting a timeline that would create a Charter Review Ad Hoc Committee. The committee's charge was to review the City Charter and propose charter amendments in the following areas: 1) authority to levy a property tax to fund residential street reconstruction, 2) review of Article II, City Council, including term limits, and 3) "housekeeping" items proposed by staff. The committee met from October 2015 to June 2016. The committee has completed their final report for the Council's consideration.
