IGSA Overview

- Intergovernmental Support Agreements (IGSAs) are collaborative partnership agreements for services, material procurement, and mutual support that can enhance operational effectiveness.
  - They can create better efficiencies or economies of scale while reducing costs and providing economic benefits to the community, and the Navy.
  - By utilizing IGSAs as a tool, the military can partner with cities to take advantage of higher quality services and costs savings by leveraging each other's strengths and continuing to build strong community relationships.

IGSA History

2013

- Congress authorized Intergovernmental Support Agreements, in the National Defense Authorization Act, allow for sole-source purchasing discussions between military installations and state or local government entities.

2021

- The Texas Legislature authorized Intergovernmental Support Agreements in SB 780 – a bill supported by the City of Corpus Christi

2023

- Governor Abbot signed the largest IGSA between the State of Texas and the United States Military to bolster infrastructure and transportation improvements on federal military property.

IGSA with NASCC

- NASCC seeks an IGSA to allow the City of Corpus Christi to assist them with needed repairs at their facility.
  - This IGSA will be used as a mechanism by NASCC to transfer payment for services to the City.
  - This agreement is particularly helpful in completing DEAAG projects where the City acts as the primary agent using our in-house departments or our city-awarded contracts.

IGSA with NASCC

- This IGSA is for an initial period of 10 years to be reviewed annually.
  - The agreement's value is estimated at $3 million annually.
  - The project areas under the IGSA include:
    - maintenance and repairs of fencing,
    - elevators,
    - roofs, and
    - other utility system services
