C. Public Comment

1. 25-1848 December 2, 2025 Public Comment

- Tom Tagliabue welcomed the new and returning board members and encouraged greater transparency regarding Harte Library. He felt that the financial burden should go to Flour Bluff ISD since they violated the terms of the contract.
- Melinda De Los Santos encouraged the board to embrace different perspectives. She stated that the previous board members were protecting children and that sexually explicit materials lead to endangering children.
- Jesus Wong welcomed the new members and encouraged them to look to other libraries as inspiration like McAllen or San Antonio who, in his opinion, do not impose their will or fall for false narratives.

D. Approval of Minutes and Action on Absences

2. 25-1849 November 4, 2025 Library Board Minutes

A motion to approve the November minutes was made by Alice Hawkins and seconded by Marilena Garza. The motion passed unanimously.

E. Committee Reports

3. 25-1850 Friends of CCPL Liaison Report

- The Friends met in November. A new programming grant is in the works based on the book "1776". This would include a book club and would be a matching grant.
- The Friends are supporting the library with the purchase of kitchen carts for programming and are assisting in the expansion of Computer 101 classes.
- They are continuing discussions on the Discover booklets and are welcoming feedback.
- The library has applied for a grant with Pizza Hut for STEM kits that can be checked out. Staff are working on phonics kits as well. Discussion was held regarding the grant writing process and what grants need approval by City Council. Alice Hawkins asked if the public could make donations to buy kits.

F. Director's Report

4. 25-1851 Director's Report

- Nominations and voting for Chair and Vice-Chair will take place at the January meeting.
- Laura gave an overview of the basic framework for board meetings.
