BACKGROUND AND FINDINGS:

This year will mark the 37th Beach to Bay Relay Marathon for Corpus Christi. The annual six-person relay running event is held on the third Saturday in May also known as Armed Forces Day. In 2011, the Beach to Bay Relay Marathon had 2,575 teams totaling over 15,000 runners. It has attracted runners from Kenya, England, Mexico, and Canada. The Beach to Bay Relay is the most premier and largest relay running event in the United States. All proceeds from the Beach to Bay Relay Marathon go to assist local charities in the Coastal Bend Area.

The Corpus Christi Road Runners is requesting the street Closure of north bound and south bound Shoreline between Buford Street and Coopers Alley to constructed the finish line and conduct the relay's ceremony and festivities for all participants.

Traffic Control set up will begin on Friday, May 18th at 6:00 p.m. to allow for event set up.
