Why are you interested in serving on a City board, commission or committee?

As a Corpus Christi native, a business person, a father and a grandfather, I am committed to making Corpus Christi the best place to live, work and play. Tourism is an important component of our local economy, and one that also contributes to the quality of life. I would like to build our community and economy by serving on the Corpus Christi Convention & Visitors Bureau. I would bring to the CVB Board a deep background in business, strategic thinking and planning, a solid understanding of the community, and passion for the importance of tourism.
