Daniel Rohde

Untitled

"This piece celebrates the enduring legacy of Corpus Christi by illustrating the transition from its historic roots to its vibrant present. The Old Nueces County Courthouse stands as a symbol of resilience and preservation, while the Harbor Bridge and modern skyline reflect the city's growth.

The artist and child represent the passing of heritage to future generations, emphasizing the responsibility to honor and protect our shared history. Through light, color, and contrast, this work pays tribute to the spirit of preservation that defines Corpus Christi."

"Sidbury House," Built in 1893

Photograph of the left side of the 1893 Sidbury House (as you are looking towards the front of it) in Heritage Park was taken by Mark Gresham (City of Corpus Christi Budget Director, April 1974 through August 1985).

The photograph was taken some time between his arrival in Corpus Christi in 1974 and the restoration of the Sidbury House, which I understand was in 1977.
