CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Executive Leadership

- Created a strategy to recruit, develop, retain and commission top quality college students as Second Lieutenants into the U.S. Army as the CEO and Professor of Military Science, Reserve Officer Training Corps (ROTC), Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi. Designed a marketing and branding plan to expose the organization to the local and regional community while developing students through outcome based training and education.
 - Commissioned 47 adaptive and critical thinking officers into the U.S. Army.
 - Negotiated and secured a 1300 acre ranch for training; over $2 million in scholarships for students; and the retention of over 100 students per school year.
 - Organization is now the Premier Senior ROTC Program in South Texas.

Management

- Provided direct oversight of program staffs consisting of military and federal civilian employees. Managed program's daily operations to include operations, logistics, budget, legal actions, training, safety, and facilities.
 - Processed over 56,000 Soldiers into the U.S. Army.
 - Maintained an operational budget of $780,000.
 - Flawlessly facilitated the realignment of multiple Army organizations and restructuring them to maximize unit effectiveness

Operations

- Planned, programmed, and implemented strategic human resources reforms for the Afghan National Army. Shaped the complex environment by working directly with the Afghan Deputy Minister of Defense to develop and implement Human Resources policies and regulations.
 - Developed the Afghan Personnel Systems Lifecycle Model that was adopted and implemented throughout the Ministry of Defense.
 - Facilitated the development and implementation of 13 human resources systems throughout the Afghan National Army.
 - Thrived in a multi-national, multi-service environment. Greatly improved U.S. and Afghan relations through cultural awareness, active listening, and diplomatic negotiations.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

U.S. Army Officer, Senior Human Resources Officer

1994-2014

Successful and distinguished military career progressing to the rank of Lieutenant Colonel with increasingly responsible positions requiring direct leadership, definite ethical conduct, project planning and execution, and fiscal responsibility.

Chief Executive Officer and Professor of Military Science, United States Army Cadet Command, Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi, Corpus Christi, TX, 2011 – 2014

- Provided vision, established a strategy, and managed resources to meet goals and objectives.
- Developed adaptive, critical leaders through Outcomes Based Training and Education.
- Fostered relationships between the U.S. Army, university officials, and community leaders.

Executive Officer, 43d Reception Battalion, Ft. Leonard Wood, MO, 2010-2011

- Managed the program's daily operation of processing soldiers into the U.S. Army and transporting them to their assigned training units resulting in processing over 24k soldiers a year.
- Designed effective processing mechanisms to maximize efficiency by leading a team of external federal agencies greatly reducing soldier attrition rate from 5% to 1.6%.

Senior Advisor to Deputy Minister of Defense for Personnel and Education, Combined Security Transition Command-Afghanistan, Operation Enduring Freedom, 2007-2008.

- Subject matter expert on all U.S. Army human resources policies and aided Afghan National Army human personnel recruit, process, and document over 125,000 Afghan soldiers.
- Selected as Senior Advisor to the Deputy Minister of Defense by achieving a 100% approval rate on human resource policies through diplomatic negotiations with various Afghan diplomats.

Senior Human Resources Operations Officer, 21st Theater Sustainment Command, Kaiserslautern, Germany, 2006-2007.

- Human resources planner of the largest logistics organization outside the United States covering the European continent and provided accountability oversight of thousands of soldiers deploying from Europe to Afghanistan and Iraq.
- Project manager on the implementation of a new Army human resources application throughout the organization; as well as the employment of human resource sustainment center in Europe.
- Directly involved in planning the restructure of the organization which led to the successful transformation of three large size units, the inactivation of two units, while simultaneously deploying and re-integrating units in support of the Global War on Terrorism.

Why are you interested in serving on a City board, commission or committee?

I have been approached by several persons asking me to serve on a board. I also served on the city parks and recreation board for 8 years and I would like to donate some of my time to the community and help unite Corpus Christi as the melting pot of America where we can become a beacon of light to other cities through out the United States.

Why are you interested in serving on a City board, commission or committee?

I am interested in becoming involved in making a difference in our city. I have been a member of the Island United PAC for the last year to encourage citizens of the island to make their voices heard in every election. I think it is important for people to give back of their resources (time, money and knowledge) when they have the opportunity and my time is now.
