DEBORAH K. RIOS

OBJECTIVE

To obtain a position in which I can utilize my present skills, develop new skills, and have an opportunity for advancement.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Solo Practitioner

RIOS LAW OFFICE

3230 Reid Dr., Suite J, Corpus Christi, Texas 78404

July 2012 - Present

June 2007 - November 2010

June 2003 - December 2005

The majority of my professional career has been as solo practitioner. Originally I opened my office practicing in the areas of family law, personal injury, wills & estates, and employment law. In 2007 I expanded my practice to include criminal law. As my practice has expanded over the years I have narrowed my areas of practice to criminal and family law. As a solo practitioner I am responsible for drafting all legal documents, meeting with clients, conducting investigation of facts, drafting and answering discovery, and preparing cases for trial. I also have ad litem certification and am frequently appointed as amicus and/or attorney or guardian ad litem in district court and in CPS cases.

Assistant Attorney General

OFFICE OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL, 2820 S. Padre Island Dr., Corpus Christi, Tx 78415

September 2009 - June 2012

I was responsible for representing the State of Texas at legal proceedings to locate, establish, enforce, modify or terminate court orders for child support and medical support. I provided legal advice and consultation to parties in the Child Support Program. I provided leadership to the court legal team and was responsible for overseeing that employees complete all tasks in a timely manner. My responsibilities included preparing a large court docket and meeting with the legal team to provide direction and/or training necessary to assist in them in implementing the necessary tasks in order to produce a final order in each case.

In-House Counsel

CORPUS CHRISTI ALLERGY & ASTHMA, CORPUS CHRISTI DERMATOLOGY & SKIN SURGERY CENTER and MORGAN PEDIATRIC CENTER, 2502 Morgan Ave., Corpus Christi, Tx

January 2006 - June 2007

I was hired as the first in-house counsel for James A. Caplin, M.D., physician-owner of an allergy, dermatology and pediatric clinic. I was responsible for providing leadership in evaluating and mitigating the multitude of legal, ethical and financial risks inherent in operating a large solo practice physician's office in the increasingly regulated healthcare industry. My responsibilities included drafting and reviewing all company contracts, reviewing and negotiating health plan contracts including fee schedules, advising on employment issues including hiring, promotion and training processes, investigating and responding to Texas Medical Board complaints, drafting informed consents for various medical procedures, consulting with senior executive management on contract and legal issues, using and managing outside counsel in a cost efficient manner, drafting compliance programs to prevent and detect violations of law, and providing general legal advice on any and all federal and state statutes affecting the company.

Associate Attorney

October 2002 - May 2003

HORNBLOWER, MANNING & WARD, 711 N. Carancahua, #1811, Corpus Christi, Tx

As an associate attorney I worked closely with senior partners in the defense of toxic tort, product liability, personal injury, and commercial litigation claims. I assisted with the defense of premise owners and product manufacturers in personal injury and product liability suits involving allegations of various types of chemical exposures. Additionally, I executed day-to-day activities such as conducting investigations, interviewing witnesses, preparing corporate representatives for deposition, coordinating discovery, managing pretrial matters, conducting settlement negotiations and overseeing document productions.
