D. REGULAR AGENDA: (ITEM 3)

3. Discussion and possible motions, resolutions, ordinances or other actions related to the eligibility/ineligibility of former City Council Member Mark Scott for the May 6, 2017 Special Election for Mayor and future City Council elections.

Mayor Pro Tem Vaughn referred to Item 3 and the following resolution was considered:

City Council Resolution Regarding Eligibility of Mark Scott to Run in Corpus Christi Special Election on May 6, 2017.

City Secretary Rebecca Huerta read the following four findings (Sections 1-4) from the resolution:

Section 1. That the Corpus Christi City Council finds that Mark Scott has served four two-year terms consecutively as a council member.

Section 2. That the Corpus Christi City Council finds that Mark Scott has reached the limitation on terms provided in City Charter Article II Section 1(d) and, therefore, is not eligible for election or appointment to City Council until three consecutive terms of office for the council have expired.

Section 3. That the City Secretary is directed to utilize this Resolution and the facts stated herein to administratively declare Mark Scott ineligible for election or appointment to the City Council until three consecutive terms of office for the council have expired.

Section 4. The City Secretary is authorized to issue an administrative declaration of ineligibility to Mark Scott regarding the May 6, 2017 special election.

City Attorney Miles K. Risley read the rules of decorum.

Mayor Pro Tem Vaughn called for comments from the public. Susie Luna Saldana thanked the council; discussed resolving this issue; expressed concerns regarding the rules of decorum preventing the public from asking city council members questions; and potential litigation regarding this item.
