A native of Corpus Christi, Texas, Lynn began her career with the Department of Defense at Lowry Air Force Base in Denver, Colorado in 1987. After a four year tour in Heidelberg, Germany Lynn returned to Corpus Christi and began working at the Corpus Christi Army Depot in 1991 as an Administrative Assistant in the Total Quality Management and Organizational Design Office. During her career at CCAD she served in several capacities to include Total Army Quality Specialist and Instructor, Business Development Specialist, Depot Operations Officer Assistant, Administrative Officer, Maintenance Systems Analyst, and Supervisory Technical Training Advisor.

In July 2006, Lynn was selected as the Chief, Skills & Development Division in the Directorate of Human Capital Management. Lynn holds a number of certifications including Registered Third-Party Quality Systems Auditor, Administrator of the Myers-Briggs Personality Type Indicator, Certified Facilitator for the Covey Leadership Institute, Certified Motivational Speaker for Zig Ziglar See You At The Top Program, and Accredited Off-Campus Instructor for the Army Management Engineering College. Currently she serves as the Army Activity Career Program 32 (Training, Capabilities and Doctrine Warfighting Developers) Manager.

Lynn is involved in several organizations and volunteer efforts including the Federal Managers Association (Chapter 125 Trustee), Army Aviation Association of America (Lifetime Member), Operation Christmas Spirit (Committee Member), and People Assisting Animal Control (PAAC). She is married to Blaine Withers and is a proud parent and step-parent to their blended family of five children, eight grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. Lynn and Blaine are animal advocates, with six rescue dogs of their own, they also contribute each year to various local animal charities and serve as fosters when called upon to do so.
