

Appointment of Charter Review Ad Hoc Committee

---

REBECCA L. HUERTA, CITY SECRETARY

SEPTEMBER 12, 2017

Background

---

March 28, 2017 - Briefing to discuss process for City Charter Review

- First available election date – November 5, 2019
- Discussion regarding target election date, but no clear consensus – November 2019 or November 2020?
- Council decided on a comprehensive review of the Charter
- Charter review committee would be composed of citizens with in-house legal support
- Simplify the language in the charter
- Appointment process
  - Individual council members would make nominations, which would be subject to confirmation by City Council
  - City Council would appoint the chairperson
  - Council would revisit issue after May special election for mayor.

July 11, 2017 - Council Member Rubio made a motion to add a future agenda item regarding the appointment of the Charter Review Commission to a future agenda

Summary

---

- Staff needs direction from Council regarding a target election date before creating timeline
  - November 5, 2019
  - Uniform election date in 2020 (May or November).

Questions?

---

